“Clowns on Fire” is a theatrical event which delves into the topic of dating and relationships in the modern, digital age. In a time where mobile devices have made convenience and quality king, how has the relatively dated concept of courtship adapted, or failed to adapt, to modern life?

The comedy piece is devised around a combination of personal stories from the performers, and content collected from a wide section of society through video interviews. ‘Clowns On Fire’ is a cabaret style production, where the audience are an integral part of the plot!

DURATION: 75MIN
TICKETS: €15/10

Misterman is an examination of a young man’s descent into religious mania in small town-Ireland. It is a seductive and terrifying portrait of innocence turned toxic, that dares you not to look away.

Inishfree might seem like a quaint Irish town, but fierce evangelist Thomas Magill knows better. He knows that jovial Dwain Flynn is a miserable drunk, that Timmy O’Leary enslaves his lovely mother, and that sweet Mrs Cleary is a blasphemous flirt.

It is down to Thomas, with God on his shoulder, to save this sinful place. But the townsfolk are not listening, an angel is misbehaving and a barking dog will not be silenced. Just how far will Thomas go in his quest for salvation?

DURATION: 85MIN
TICKETS: €15/€12

John has been in a stable relationship with his boyfriend for a number of years. But when he takes a break, he accidentally falls in love with a woman. Torn between the two, filled with guilt and conflicting emotions, he doesn’t know which way to turn. His boyfriend is willing to wait for him to make a decision, but so is his girlfriend. John is confused. As the pressure mounts, a dinner with both parties is arranged, and everyone wants to know. Who is John? What is he? What will his decision be?

A chaotic boxing match between love rivals that rings with contemporary relevance, deftly exploring questions of identity, sexuality, fear, and our visceral discomfort with ambiguity.

DURATION: 75MIN
